

Details of contracts awarded on nomination basis (above Rs. 2 lakhs) for 01.04.2020 to 30.06.2021

S. No	Particulars of Goods/ Services	Name of Supplier	Approved amount	Date of Award	Brief Justification for awarding on Nomination basis
1	Implementation of NIC e-Office Application.	M/s NICSI	₹ 3,37,00,000	09.02.2021	NIC (Government agency) has implemented eOffice, being used in several ministries.
2	Oracle Licenses of ERP	M/s Oracle India	₹ 46,05,860	28.05.2021	Proprietary Item
3	Development of online portal for closure proposals of DDUGJY & Saubhagya	M/s Indus Web Solutions Private Limited	₹ 6,12,500	06.10.2020	Since online portal for DPR submission was implemented by this agency , as such the same agency was awarded contract for scheme closure portal also.
4	i. To provide support in preparing guidelines of new scheme and developing the rating framework of Discoms. ii. To provide assistance for organizing and making PPTs, Reports, collecting data and analysis etc. iii. Any other work assigned by REC from time to time over the course of assignment.	M/s KPMG	₹ 46,60,000	25.03.2021	Considering the stringent timelines given by MoP for the launch and execution of the government scheme, the agency was awarded as interim arrangement for 4 months till regular consultants are hired. The regular open tender for engaging services of consultants has already been floated and tendering process is ongoing.
5	Publishing a book on regulatory parameters of Power Distribution Companies	M/s KPMG Advisory Services Private Limited	₹ 7,50,000	07.06.2021	Availability of compiled data on regulatory parameters is essential for quick and efficient release of funds under Liquidity Infusion Scheme under Atmanirbhar Bharat and for checking compliance on improving the operational efficiency including regulatory parameters, in the new Distribution reformatory scheme which is expected to be launched shortly .KPMG Advisory Services Private Limited, a leading consulting firm is involved in many key reform initiatives taken in the power sector such as supporting MoP and has already published these reports for FY 2018-19, FY 2019-20 and FY 2020-21 which is being implemented by the Foreign, Commonwealth and Development Office, Government of the UK in association with the Ministry of Power (MOP). As the activity is urgent the same agency has been engaged for the interim period of 1st quarter of Fy 22 till regular consultants are hired.